People are tired of reading about laws and techniques of becoming successful in business. People are tired of attending seminars where they would be told about the rules of saving, investment and what not. They want to read and learn from real life experience. They want to know what Bill Gates did, what made Steve Jobs special, what is that unique feature in Mark Zuckerberg. And the answer to these many yearning is Giant: Biography of 50 Great Entrepreneurs and Lessons from their lives. Not only does the book beautifully recount the lives of these mavericks, it also clearly states out the lessons that can be learnt from their lives; their successes, their mistakes and blunders, everything.

There is no better way to learn than to learn from their lives of those who had truly being there.

The book expunges the lives of 50 great entrepreneurs and teaches unique and practical lessons that can leant from each of their lives.

If you want to be lawyer, what better place is to learn than from a lawyer. If you wish to be a doctor, who is in the best position to instruct you than a doctor. Similarly, if you wish to be a successful entrepreneur, there is no better place to learn than from successful entrepreneurs.

This book is intended for all individuals, both young and old, who desire to be successful in playing the intricate sport of business.
