Jane Austen died in Winchester in 1817 Use of this data is subject to Terms and Conditions In 1940 and 1941 some people from heavily bombed Southampton slept at night in cellars and tunnels under a brewery depot in Hyde Street

The Black Death may have killed half of the population of the town Augustinian friars arrived in Winchester about the same time as the Carmelites and lived near Southgate In 1847 Winchester gained gas street lighting It is interesting that the closest parallels for the earliest New Forest pots come from north-eastern France and West Germany Wolvesey castle, the bishops old residence, was now in ruins and was replaced by a palace in the late 17th century County: Hampshire District: Winchester District Type: District Authority Parish: National Park: Not applicable to this List entry The F at the end of the name stands for fecit, Latin for made (it). The piece of pottery is part of a shallow dish This lack of people and the plentiful local supplies of clay and sand were probably important factors in the creation of the pottery industry. Decorated New Forest pottery The design of the pottery kilns in the New Forest is unique in Britain at this time Facebook Twitter Youtube Pinterest Contact us
